WEEKLY BULLETIN FOR SEPTEMBER 7 TO SEPTEMBER 11, 2020

This week:

We will start visiting classes this week. The agreement states that administrators shall give teachers “reasonable” time notice. We thought that 24 hours prior to virtually visiting you would be reasonable. Remember that these visits are non-evaluative.

Back to School Night: Please prepare the zoom links for your back to school night and share with your students on Tuesday and Wednesday. As I told you at the meeting on Monday, you can record a video introducing yourself and letting parents know what your expectations are so their kids can be successful in the class. Please encourage your parents to sign in the parent portal and submit a lunch application if they have not already done so. You can show the video and then open the chat room for general questions. I will send a letter to parents explaining that Back to School Night is not the time to hold conferences regarding specific student's needs. It's just an opportunity for them to meet you and find out each class expectations.

Have a great weekend!
